PASTOR'S CORNER

20TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

LITURGICAL UPDATES

During this parish phase of the Eucharistic Revival, we will be enhancing our liturgical worship in different ways. Two aspects and parts of the liturgy which are given to us by Holy Mother Church that will be incorporated into our Sunday liturgies later this month are the Entrance Antiphon and the Communion Antiphon. These Antiphons are little scripture verses which prepare us for the liturgy about to be celebrated and are said or sung before the Processional hymn. You can find them on the pages where the readings for the Sunday begin. At St. James, we will have the Cantor sing them and then we will stand for the Processional hymn. These are beautiful scriptures which capture the essence of the readings and prayers for that particular day.

We will also be including some Eucharistic centered hymns each Sunday. By the end of the year, some of them will be part of our Catholic hymn knowledge and prayer. I hope that each of us, through exposure to these beautiful hymns, will deepen our love and devotion for Jesus in the Eucharist. Enhancing our liturgy brings out more of what the Church has given us through the centuries and today – bringing forth from the storeroom both the old and the new. (cf. Matthew 13:52)

HEALTH UPDATE

Last week I had a PET scan which showed that the cancer in my abdomen had not spread and that it was stable. While I was praying and hoping that it would be completely eradicated and no trace would be found, the news that we received was excellent and encouraging! The chemotherapy regimen is doing what it is supposed to be doing – keeping the cancer at bay and not allowing it to spread! Thank you for your prayers! They are working! I am still here and the side effects have been tolerable! Your prayers offer me great support and encouragement!

My present chemotherapy regimen is a three week cycle. At the beginning, I have an infusion and then I take oral chemo twice a day for two weeks. The third week is off. Then, I start the three weeks again. This is what is called palliative chemotherapy because there is really no end in sight right now. I'll go through this cycle as long as the good Lord gives me!

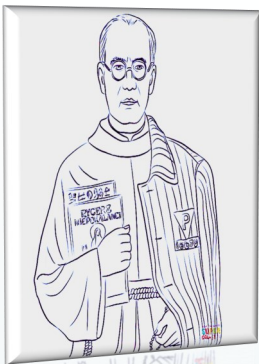

THANK YOU!

Thank you for the many birthday wishes this past week! I am so happy to be alive and to be here with you at St. James! My whole being is filled with gratitude to Almighty God for keeping me here and giving you to me and me to you! I love you!

May you and your families have a wonderful week and may the blessings of Almighty God be showered upon you!

~ Fr. Daniel Firmin

St. Maximilian Kolbe Drive for assistance with the St. James Prison Ministry

Today, a member of the St. James Prison Ministry will update us after each Mass. Through your support, significant progress is being made. The spirituality outreach for the St James Prison Ministry continues to grow. The “pilot” on-site classroom series at the Georgia Coastal State Prison (CSP) was completed. We distributed Catholic Bibles, rosaries, religious books, and prayer pamphlets. We supplied basic hygiene products and non-RX reading glasses to those with no access to funds. In May, our prayer group initiated a rosary prayer service at St. James held on the first Friday of each month covering a definitive list of petitions for all impacted by incarceration.

Please continue your assistance in the forms of time, talent, and funds. Your time and talent are needed to attend CSP on-site services, to provide content for the developing prayer pamphlet series, and to participate in the monthly rosary service for the community impacted by incarceration. Funds are needed to refresh the spiritual and educational resources, hygiene products, and reading glasses. We are prayerful and grateful for the talent and funds supporting this ministry.

A PRAYER FOR THE SICK

Father, your only son took upon himself the sufferings and weakness of all mankind; through His passion and cross He taught us how good can be brought out of suffering. Look upon our brothers and sisters who are ill. In the midst of illness and pain, may they be united with Christ, who heals both body and soul; may they know the consolation promised to those who suffer and be fully restored to health.

~ Through Christ our Lord. ~ Amen.

We pray for the sick of our Parish Community:

Fr. Daniel Firmin, Phin Michael, Miles Nguyen, Paul Baldwin, Margie Waters, Gloria Cirincione, Mimi Nettles, Brian DeRouen, Margie O'Keefe, Robin Olson, Vincent DeNitto, Charles DuPlay, Kelley Weston, Jeff Parker, Pamela De Guzman, David Shockley, John Tumino, Eleanor Collini Farkas, Marie Orvin, and all those listed in the book of the sick.

In order for a name to be included on the prayer list, an immediate family member must notify the church office at 912-355-1523. Names will be listed here for 4 weeks and then entered into the Book of the Sick, unless the office is notified otherwise.

A PRAYER FOR THE DEAD

Father, source of forgiveness and salvation, through the intercession of the Blessed Virgin Mary and all the saints, grant that our relatives, friends, and benefactors, who have passed from this world, may come to share your eternal happiness in the communion of saints.

~ Through Christ our Lord. ~ Amen.

We pray for the repose of the souls of:

Sr. Carmela, Steven MacAulay, Hazel Shockley, Amy Speir, Simon Bauer, Geneva Alexander, Madeline Cetti, Justin Smith, and all our deceased family and friends.

THIS WEEK AT SAINT JAMES CATHOLIC SCHOOL

2nd grade was already hard at work on the first day of school!
Welcome back to all of our Chargers!

A Prayer for Parishioners

Almighty God,
My parish family is composed of people like me,
I help make it what it is.
It will be friendly, if I am.
Its pews will be filled, if I help fill them.
It will do great work, if I work.
It will make generous gifts to many causes,
if I am a generous giver.
It will bring other people into its worship
and fellowship, if I invite and bring them.
It will be a parish family of loyalty and love,
of fearlessness and Faith,
and a parish with a noble spirit,
if I—who make it what it is—am filled with these same qualities.
Therefore, with the help of God, I will dedicate myself to the task of being all the things that I want my parish family to be.
Bless my journey, Lord God, that I might build the Church through Jesus Christ our Lord.
Amen.
