APRIL 2024 CANDIDATES FOR THE ELECTIONS FOR THE PARISH PASTORAL COUNCIL

Once again, it's time to elect three parish council representatives.

This is an essential process, and you are an important part of the process.

Below are Biographies for the nominees. Please review the biographies and on the weekend of April 20 & 21 there will be a table setup with a ballot box in the narthex with ballots sheet for you to select three (3) representatives to deposit in the box.

Alex Cate

Alex Cate is a native of Savannah. And no stranger to the diocese. He graduated from Blessed Sacrament School, then went to Benedictine. After his freshman year, he moved out of state to Boise, Idaho and continued his parochial education at Bishop Kelly High School. The only Catholic School in the state!

Upon graduating high school, Alex enlisted in the US Navy. He spent eight and a half years dutifully keeping vigil for us, which included two deployments for Operation Iraqi Freedom.

Now, Alex is a dedicated parishioner at St. James along with his wife, Jacquelyn, who is a St. James alumni, and their three children. Logan, Amelia, and Robert.

Alex spends much of his spare time volunteering as a youth athletics coach at Jenkins Athletic Club, and is always looking for a way to give back to the city and the parish he loves.

Thabo Hall

Hello, my name is Ngoanathabo Hall. Most call me Thabo. My husband Chris and I have six kids, who attend St. James, St. Vincent, & Juliette Lowe. I am a Realtor with Engel & Voelkers Savannah.

I started at St. James as the youth minister a little over 23 years ago and worked in that capacity for 4 years. It was truly a gift working with the kids & families of this parish. Now that we are back in the parish, I'm looking forward to being involved in a more concrete capacity and serving through parish council.

Every step toward the goal of justice requires sacrifice, suffering, and struggle; the tireless exertions and passionate concern of dedicated individuals. Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.

Steven Peschock

Steven Peschock, 39, born in Statesville, NC. He married his beloved wife Elizabeth in 2015, and together they raise their family, including their vibrant 8-year old daughter, Emma Wylly, and their cherubic 1-year-old, Peter. Steven's professional path led him to the Georgia Ports Authority. However, his journey into the maritime industry was preceded by 13 honorable years of service in the U.S. Army. His role as a husband and father, along with friendly nudges from a fellow Port Authority Catholic, led Steven to find his way into the Saint James Catholic Church.

Craig Sher-

My name is Craig Sherman, I am a 44 year old cradle Catholic who has been a member of St. James the Less Catholic Church for just over 15 years. My wife and I celebrated our 21st wedding anniversary in February. We have three children, Patrick 20, Madeleine 15, and Nicholas 5. I am from the small city of Lockport, New York, which is just north of Buffalo. I am a former United States Marine, Eagle Scout, and have been a high school teacher in Savannah for 13 years. I earned a Masters Degree in American History from Armstrong Atlantic State University. As a parishioner at St. James, I am a Lector, Eucharist Minister and RCIA speaker. I was founder and director of the St. Paul Street Evangelization team in Savannah and participated in That Man Is You for several years. My hobbies include bagpiping, Catholic Apologetics and Church History.

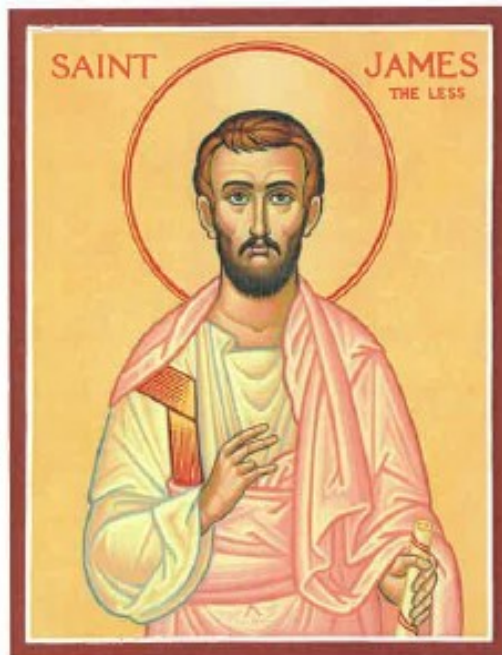

Connell Cannon Youmans

My name is Connell Cannon Youmans. I am a graduate of St. James Catholic School, St. Vincent's Academy, the University of Georgia and Mercer Law School. My husband, Reemer Youmans, and I have four children, all of whom attend St. James Catholic School. Our oldest child will graduate in May and attend Benedictine Military School in the fall. I have been an active member of the parish community and school community for years including serving as a member of the St. James Catholic Church Master Plan Committee, serving on the St. James Home and School Board, serving as consecutive vice chair and then chair of the school's largest fundraiser for four years, serving as grade parent for many years, and various other volunteer roles in the classroom, at the school and the church.

Our Lady of Good Hope Chapel

150th Anniversary

Sunday May 5, 2024

Mass at Our Lady of Good Hope Chapel at 4:00 P.M.

16 Rosenbrook Ave, Savannah

Reception to Follow at Villa Marie Center

60 Dolan Drive

In 1874, Benedictine monks from the St. Vincent Monastery in Latrobe, Pennsylvania arrived on the Isle Hope to establish a novitiate, a chapel, and a school for emancipated slaves on Skidaway Island. The chapel was located on land and in a building donated by Stephen Dupon. After one year, all of the monks except one had died due to the yellow fever epidemic.

Because of the epidemic, the Benedictine community on Isle of Hope was decimated and had to leave the island, but returned for 11 years in 1877. They left in 1888, only to return to serve the faithful in that area in 1908. The monks served there until the 1970s, when the diocesan priests ministering at St. James Parish assumed responsibility. The chapel then became a mission of St. James Parish. Much of the original chapel remains in present-day, including the pews and altar rail, which are made from heart pine. Today, Holy Mass is celebrated on the first Sunday of every month.

PASTOR'S CORNER 4TH SUNDAY OF EASTER

Christ is risen!

He is risen indeed!

Dignitas Infinita

Last week, I mentioned that I would write a few observations about the Declaration on Human Dignity – Dignitas Infinita – published by the Dicastery of the Doctrine of the Faith. The Holy Father wanted to reinforce the teaching of the Church concerning the dignity of the human person and to apply that essential teaching to different issues facing us today that are more pronounced than in years past.

The dignity of every human is infinite. This means that it has no end. It does have a beginning because the beginning of every human being is at the moment of conception. It doesn't start with being cognizant or with beginning to make independent decisions. We are imbued with dignity from the very first moment of existence. The document reaffirms this teaching because it is being challenged and twisted by today's culture in many different ways – my dignity comes from how I identify, my dignity comes because I can think, my dignity stems from my own self-determination, my dignity arises from my usefulness, etc.... The Church, in this declaration, refutes those claims prevalent in our society today.

After this reaffirmation, the document forcefully defends the Church's teaching on subjects among which are abortion, assisted suicide, euthanasia, human trafficking, sex abuse, and surrogate motherhood. Towards the end, gender theory and sex change are addressed. These were the hot topics! Our biological sex (male or female) is a gift of God and cannot be separated from the human person. The difference between masculinity and femininity is beautiful and necessary in the work of creation. "All attempts to eliminate the ineliminable sexual difference between man and woman are to be rejected." (Dignitas Infinita, 59)

"The dignity of the body cannot be considered inferior to that of the person as such." (Dignitas Infinita, 60) We are body and soul. Our bodies are an intrinsic part of who we are and who God made us to be. To be made in the image of God does not merely apply to the soul and its faculties of the intellect and the will. It refers also to the body which has been gifted to us and the body holds an infinite dignity, too. Therefore, attempts to change our biological sex amount to mutilation of what God has given to us. The desire to change it is a temptation to play God, to take the place of God.

The document does not present a full theological, philosophical, psychological, sociological, historical treatise on each of these different subjects and does not pretend to do so. There are many aspects of the different issues addressed in the declaration. This document focuses on the fundamental teaching of the Church which undergirds all teaching on these subjects – that every human being regardless of where they are in the stages of existence has dignity that never comes to an end.

Unlike human dignity, my space here is finite so I cannot address all or summarize every part of the document. Overall, it is a strong and wonderful document which is worth reading. There are some parts which can be a bit of a stretch, but don't let those distract you from the truth once again reaffirmed by Holy Mother Church. I again refer you to two sources who have, in my estimation, the most accurate and insightful commentary on the text: www.pillarcatholic.com and www.ncregister.com. Do not let CNN or Fox News guide your thoughts on the declaration. Let's go to the source text and to learned and trusted Catholic brothers and sisters to help us think correctly and with the Holy Spirit as we encounter this new declaration.

May the peace, joy, and hope of our Risen Lord Jesus be with you and your families!

~ Fr. Daniel Firmin

A PRAYER FOR THE SICK

Father, your only son took upon himself the sufferings and weakness of all mankind; through His passion and cross He taught us how good can be brought out of suffering. Look upon our brothers and sisters who are ill. In the midst of illness and pain, may they be united with Christ, who heals both body and soul; may they know the consolation promised to those who suffer and be fully restored to health.

~ Through Christ our Lord. ~ Amen.

We pray for the sick of our Parish Community:

Fr. Daniel Firmin, Phin Michael, Anne Pippin, Mary Anne Walters, Connie Tyler, Josie Lee, Kathleen Kennedy, Paul Baldwin, Brian DeRouen, Joe Harty, Jody Moran, Pamela De Guzman, and all those listed in the book of the sick.

In order for a name to be included on the prayer list, an immediate family member must notify the church office at 912-355-1523. Names will be listed here for 4 weeks and then entered into the Book of the Sick, unless the office is notified otherwise.

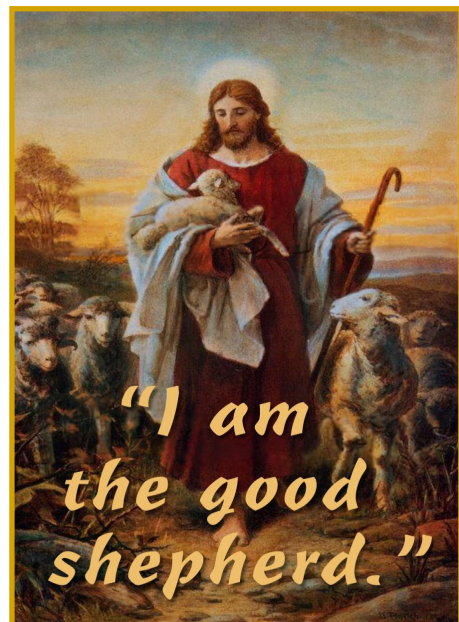

A PRAYER FOR THE DEAD

Father, source of forgiveness and salvation, through the intercession of the Blessed Virgin Mary and all the saints, grant that our relatives, friends, and benefactors, who have passed from this world, may come to share your eternal happiness in the communion of saints.

~ Through Christ our Lord. ~ Amen.

We pray for the repose of the souls of:

Fr. Mike Ingram, Gayle Josey, Jack Roberts, Frances DeWitt, Howard Cohen, Brenda Stewart, Cayden Robbins, Elaine Ehret, Robin Molella, and all our deceased family and friends.
